

AMERICAN
SPEECH-LANGUAGE-
HEARING
ASSOCIATION

Model Hearing Benefits Plan

Services (Provided by an ASHA-Certified-, and, where applicable, state-licensed audiologist)	Coverage Level & Device Allowances	CPT, HCPCS, & ICD-9-CM Codes¹
Audiological Assessment Procedures (Diagnostic)	Covered in full.	92552 through 92589, 95920, 95925
Audiologic (Aural) Rehabilitation/Habilitation & Auditory Processing Procedures	Covered in full as long as measurable and positive functional change is noted in a reasonable time period. *	92506, 92507, 92510
Balance System Assessment Procedures	Covered in full.	92541 through 92548
Cerumen Management	Covered in full.	69210
Diagnostic Analysis of a Cochlear Implant	Covered in full.	92601, 92602, 92603, 92604
Vestibular and Balance Rehabilitation	Covered in full as long as measurable and positive functional change is noted in a reasonable time period. *	97112
Hearing Aid Assessment and Fitting Procedures	Covered in full.	92590 through 92596
Assistive Listening System/Device (ALD) Assessments	Covered in full.	92590
Hearing Aid Devices, ALDs & Accessories	If recommended by an ASHA certified, and where applicable, licensed audiologist: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $2000 hearing aid/ALD allowance per ear every two years. For individuals who demonstrate a significant reduction in hearing, the allowance may be provided on a more frequent basis upon audiologist's recommendation. • The $2000 per ear allowance may be used for the purchase of a hearing aid, for the purchase of an ALD or toward the purchase of both types of devices. 	V5011 and V5020 through V5269
Hearing Aid Repair/Modification	Covered in full.	V5014
Replacement Earmolds	Covered in full, up to four times per year for children 7 years of age and under.	V5264, V5265

* If a limit on the number of sessions is established, the audiologist should be given the flexibility to determine the frequency and length of the sessions as well as the duration of treatment

¹ Refer to Resources for additional information on CPT, ICD-9-CM, and HCPCS coding systems.