

AMERICAN
SPEECH-LANGUAGE-
HEARING
ASSOCIATION

Model Speech and Language Benefits Plan

Services (Provided by an ASHA-certified-, and, where applicable, state-licensed speech-language pathologist)

Coverage Level & Device Allowances

CPT, HCPCS & ICD-9-CM Codes

Speech, Language, Voice, Communication, Auditory Processing, and Aural Rehabilitation Assessment Procedures	Covered in full.	92506, 92511, 92512, 92516, 92520, 96105, 96110, 96111, 96115
Swallowing Function Assessment Procedures	Covered in full.	92610, 92611, 92612, 92614, 92616
Speech, Language, Voice, Communication, Aural Rehabilitation/Habilitation & Auditory Processing Treatment	Covered in full as long as measurable and positive functional change is noted in a reasonable time period. *	92507, 92508, 92510, 97532, 97533
Augmentative & Alternative Communication (AAC) Assessment (non-speech and speech generating)	Covered in full.	92605, 92607, 92608, 92597
Voice Prosthetic Assessment	Covered in full.	92597
Swallowing Function Treatment	Covered in full as long as measurable and positive functional change is noted in a reasonable time period. *	92526
Augmentative & Alternative Communication (AAC) Treatment	Covered in full as long as measurable and positive functional change is noted in a reasonable time	92606, 92609 period. *
Voice Prosthetic Treatment	Covered in full as long as measurable and positive functional change is noted in a reasonable time period. *	92507
Augmentative & Alternative Communication (AAC) Devices, Prosthetic Devices & Accessories	Covered in full if recommended by an ASHA-certified, and/or licensed speech-language pathologist.	K0541 through K0547 and L8500-L8510 V5335, V5336

* If a limit on the number of sessions is established, the speech-language pathologist should be given the flexibility to determine the frequency and length of the sessions as well as the duration of treatment.